

How to join the « Compagnons de l'IPhT » association

Thank you for your interest in the "Compagnons de l'IPhT" association.

In order to give the Association the means to start its activities, the annual membership fee (from which PhD students are exempt) has been set at €25 for the year 2025.

If you are not eligible for free membership, please start by paying the membership fee by bank transfer to the association's account (RIB in PJ) -- please specify your first name, surname and "Adhésion 2025".

Once you've paid your membership fee, if it's due, please inform the association office by sending an e-mail to compagnons@ipht.fr, with proof of your transfer (bank notification, screen shot, etc.).

Within three weeks of sending your e-mail, you'll receive a reply from the office and an electronic version of your membership card.
